To point out, however, the difference, and not merely the distinction between these two things, will be one object in this address. It is equally necessary that the public mind should be led to discriminate between denominations who cannot, or, at least, do not, teach Christianity in all its essential credenda, or things to be believed, and its agenda, or things to be performed, without indoctrinating the minds of their pupils with all the peculiarities of their ecclesiastical and ritual system, - and those who can, and do, leave these things in their proper sphere, and imbue the minds of their pupils only with the essential spirit and principles of Christianity. On this point, also,...
