lulu.com. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 166 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. Mirrored Images by Rosanne Catalano begins with a poem about, and dedication to, her late father and still-living mother. It then goes into a short story she wrote about an experience with bullying in the eighth grade of school to a story about being saved by a guardian angel when the story's character is in her mid 30s to another short story about a little boy who is abandoned by his mother when she starts dating a man who doesn't like children to yet another short story about how the author and her husband of 16 years met and fell in love to yet another short story about Christmas with her grandmother. . . The author shares ten of her short stories and two of her poems with you. An interesting read in which you may want to guess which of the short stories are fiction or fact. Rosanne's next book is titled Escape and Redemption, but it will be a crime fiction novel that will start off where this book leaves off with her short story titled From Bags to Riches. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
