Excerpt: . the Emperor was no less his benefactor than yours: retire, Caroline. And she turned her back on her. It was not till after the Emperor s death that Madame Laetitia became reconciled to her daughter. In 1820, when a Bonapartist conspiracy was denounced to the Chambers of Paris; when Spain rpse, through the courage of the illustrious and unfortunate Kiego; when Naples revolted, and all Italy was covered by Carbonari--the government of the Bourbons felt great alarm. Deceived by false information, it appealed to the Pope against the behaviour of Madame Laetitia, who was then residing at Eome. She had, it was stated, her agents in Corsica to foment there an insurrection in favour of Napoleon, that its ramifications extended into the interior of France, to gain partisans for her son, and that the king was aware of DUKE DB BLACAS. 149 the number...
